Josh,

The Committee has reached a settlement with the Debtors and is supporting the Plan, which includes releases for, among other parties, Mr. Doerr and Foris. We therefore cannot assume the mantle of your clients claims.

Best,
Sam

Hi Sam,

I hope you had a nice holiday. Happy New Year!

Are you available tomorrow for a call to discuss our Section 16(b) claim against Foris Ventures on behalf of Amyris?

Thanks,

Josh

Glenn,

We respectfully disagree with your email which is not accurate as to the Plan.

The Committee is a fiduciary for creditors. The Committee itself does not have any claims itself. The Committee supports the Debtors releasing the claims that the estates have against Mr. Doerr under the Plan. The Committee is not in a position to preserve these claims given our settlement with the Debtors and Mr. Doerr, who is paying for the releases by providing consideration to the estates for this release.

Greg:

The Creditor's Committee has agreed to a Plan that releases our client's derivative Section 16(b) claim against Foris Ventures and Doerr, purportedly for no consideration. Since early August we have implored the Committee to pursue the Section 16(b) action which seeks at least $6.4M from Foris Ventures and John Doerr for the benefit of Amyris. These defendants are principal beneficiaries of the Plan and control Amyris through secured claims. In these circumstances, your advice that: "The Committee has reached a settlement with the Debtors and is supporting the Plan, which includes releases for, among other parties, Mr. Doerr and Foris" is to say the least troublesome. The Section 16(b) defendants have obtained a release for themselves for no consideration against the interests of the Committee.

In our derivative action on behalf of Amyris, the company unsuccessfully moved to dismiss the Complaint in the district court, and then joined with the Foris and Doerr
